JOE HIRSCH GOES TO CONFERENCE AT GALVESTON TODAY

RECEIVES SCORES OF TELEGRAMS
FROM PROMINENT BANKERS
ASSURING ATTENDANCE

State-Wide Interest Manifested
in Conference of Southern Bankers
on Cotton Situation

On the eve of his departure for Galveston where a preliminary conference in connection with the Cotton Conference of Southern Bankers will begin Friday morning, Joe Hirsch of Corpus Christi, president of the Texas State Bankers' Association, who called the conference, received yesterday afternoon numerous wires from bankers of Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth, San Antonio, and practically all principal cities throughout the state advising that delegations will be present at the conference Saturday. R. L. Van Zandt, secretary of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas and Nathan Adams in charge of the Wetherspoon campaign will join Mr. Hirsch in the preliminary meeting.

Among the subjects that will be discussed at the conference are "Organization of State Banks in the Disposal of Cotton Warehouse Paper," "Uniform Warehouse Laws and a Uniform Southern Cotton Warehouse Receipt in All Southern States," and "Future Changes in Maturities of Farm Paper Receipts in a Series of Graduated Dates Starting in October." Maturity starting one or two months of the Cotton will be the first item.

Nathan Adams, cashier of the American Exchange National Bank of Dallas, who has taken a strong stand on the value of cotton, will present a resume of the work of the Texas Bankers' Association Warehouse Committee.

GROSSES OCEAN 2000 TIMES, RETIREES.

LIVERTON, Aug. 12.—When the American Line steamship St. Louis reached her dock here tomorrow, the passenger, Howard E. Hinman, will return from his long service. He is completing his fourth round-trip to America and has therefore crossed the Atlantic 200 times. He is 69 years old, and has been at sea since he was 32. He left California in his trimps here that he has selected a little farm in Scotland where he will settle down. It is figured that Hinman has traveled over 20,000 miles on the ocean, and that his services were continuous, he having brought up to a high standard the ocean liner's accommodations.
